Positioned in a sought-after residential setting, this attractive building plot offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking to create a bespoke home within the well-served village of Gosberton. The site currently has outline planning permission granted under reference H08-0254-25, for the construction of a detached dwelling. Tucked away to the north and rear of numbers 2 and 4 Godfrey Avenue, the plot enjoys a quiet setting while remaining conveniently close to village amenities.

Positioned in a sought-after residential setting, this attractive building plot offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking to create a bespoke home within the well-served village of Gosberton. The site currently has outline planning permission granted under reference H08-0254-25, for the construction of a detached dwelling. Tucked away to the north and rear of numbers 2 and 4 Godfrey Avenue, the plot enjoys a quiet setting while remaining conveniently close to village amenities.

Gosberton itself provides a welcoming community atmosphere and a range of everyday conveniences. Within easy reach are a local primary school, convenience store, butchers, and pleasant recreational areas, making this an ideal location for families, downsizers, or anyone looking for a peaceful yet accessible place to call home. The village also offers good travel links to nearby towns, enhancing its appeal for commuters.

The plot previously benefitted from full planning permission under reference H08-0304-21 for the erection of a spacious three-bedroom detached bungalow, including an ensuite and dressing room. While this permission has since lapsed, it demonstrates the site's clear potential and may guide buyers in exploring future design possibilities, subject to the relevant planning consents.

Access is taken from Godfrey Avenue, with a small portion of shared access with number 2. The plot is available to view, and prospective purchasers are strongly encouraged to familiarise themselves with the associated planning documents to fully understand the opportunities the site presents. For further information or to arrange a viewing, please contact Ark Property Centre.

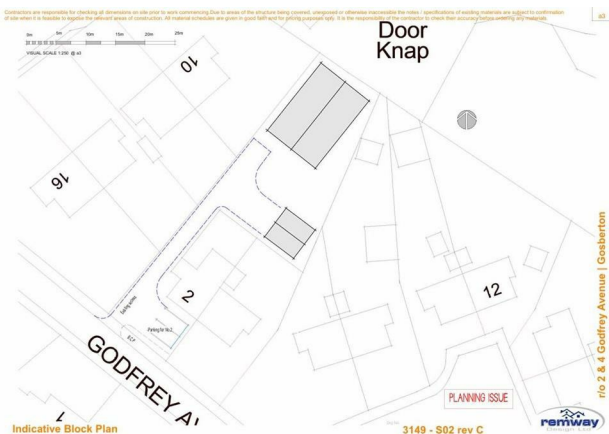

Contractors are responsible for checking all dimensions on site prior to work commencing. Due to the nature of the structure being created, uncorrected or otherwise unacceptable errors, a combination of existing materials are subject to confirmation of the order to be made to respect the relevant areas of construction. All material quantities are given in good faith and for design purposes only. It is the responsibility of the contractor to check the accuracy before ordering any materials.

Anti-money Laundering (AML) Checks

If you wish to proceed with an offer on this property, we are required under HMRC regulations to carry out anti-money laundering (AML) checks for all prospective buyers and sellers. We take this responsibility seriously and ensure that all checks are conducted securely and in line with current guidelines. To facilitate this process, our trusted partner, Coadjute, will manage the verification on our behalf. Once an offer has been accepted (subject to contract), Coadjute will send you a secure link to complete the biometric identification checks electronically.

Please note that a non-refundable fee of £27 + VAT per person applies for this service, with payment processed directly through Coadjute.

These AML checks must be completed before we are able to issue the memorandum of sale to the solicitors confirming the transaction. If you have any questions regarding this process, please do not hesitate to contact our office.
