Full Description

There is access to the block from both Granville Road, where the car park can be found, or Stavordale Road, nearer to the Marina. Via the block entrance, the initial entrance hall guides you through to the communal living area with spacious seating space and conservatory leading to the stunning communal gardens.

Down the hall, a lift can be found to all floors with this apartment on the first floor. The apartment door is near the entrance from the stairs for convenience, too.

Inside the apartment, the entrance hall leads to all rooms. To the right is the spacious lounge/diner, located adjacent to the kitchen. The lounge/diner itself is a vast space with ample room for both living and dining furniture alongside a window overlooking the communal gardens, offering a pleasant outlook. The kitchen is finished in a contemporary style with both base and eye level units featuring an electric oven/hob and sink to the side; The room retains a frosted glass window for borrowed light.

Continuing through the accommodation, there are two large storage cupboards on the entrance side with ample space for day-to-day bits and pieces.

In the heart of the flat is Bedroom One, a well proportioned double room with integrated storage cupboard and outlook over the communal garden. Bedroom Two neighbours Bedroom One with a similar outlook and proportions albeit providing wall and overhead cupboard units to fit the bed between.

Completing the apartment is the shower room. Toilet and basin sit to the external wall with a shower tucked into the left.
