

Ashdown Cottage, Hare Street, SG9 0DX

Guide Price £440,000

CHAIN FREE: A characterful, double fronted cottage that sits in a semi-rural location around a mile and a half from the bustling market town of Buntingford. The original section of the cottage is timber-framed, complemented by later brick-built additions, and is rich in character with exposed beams, brick fireplaces, and traditional latch doors throughout. The accommodation includes a full-width living/dining room centred around an attractive brick chimney breast, with an additional fireplace inset with a wood-burning stove. A spacious kitchen/dining/family room provides ample space for a large dining table, comfortable seating and has direct access to the garden. Completing the ground floor are a bathroom and a separate W.C. and there are two generously proportioned bedrooms upstairs. Outside, the rear garden is predominantly walled, offering a good degree of privacy, with gated side access leading to the front of the property.
