Welcome to Langtoft House

Located within walking distance of the town centre, Spalding train and bus stations and just a few hundred yards from what will soon be a stunning modern sports and social complex, Langtoft House is an exceptional Grade II listed home that perfectly blends period charm with contemporary living. Carefully renovated over the past decade, this home retains its character while incorporating modern fixtures and fittings throughout.

From the moment you step inside, you are greeted by immaculately kept original Milton tiled flooring, setting the tone for the elegance that follows. To the front of the home, the spacious sitting room is bathed in natural light from its large sash windows with window seats and includes period architrave and coving, enhancing its abundance of character. Opposite, the formal dining room impresses with its grand wooden flooring, intricate detailing around the windows, and charming alcoves—just a few of the many stunning period features throughout. Overlooking the rear garden, the spacious library/study is a standout feature, complete with a bespoke bookcase and a secret door, adding a unique touch of charm and intrigue. Another inviting reception room leads through to the modern kitchen, dining, family room, a bright and open space that overlooks the beautifully established rear garden. The kitchen is truly the heart of this home, designed with both style and practicality in mind. Its large island makes it the perfect hub for family gatherings and entertaining. Just off the kitchen, you'll find a handy utility room, pantry, and cloakroom, with a separate door leading out to the patio.

The first floor boasts three impressive bedrooms, each with its own en-suite. The Master bedroom feels like a boutique hotel suite, featuring a grand space with high ceilings, large windows, and lovely river views. The adjoining spacious dressing room and luxurious en-suite—complete with a walk-in double shower and his-and-hers sinks—add a true sense of elegance. Bedroom Two is another generously sized room with river views and a modern en-suite, while Bedroom Three is equally grand, offering ample space and a stylish en-suite bathroom.

At the top of the house, two additional charming bedrooms offer versatility—one currently being used as a study. The family bathroom is a true retreat, with a freestanding roll top bath positioned in the centre of the room, adding a luxurious touch.

The beautifully maintained gardens reflect the elegance of the home, offering an established, tranquil space to relax and entertain. Despite its central location, Langtoft House provides ample off-road parking for multiple cars, secured behind private gates.

Beyond the patio, a lush lawn extends across the garden, bordered by well established trees and mature shrubs that enhance privacy and natural beauty. A charming walled garden, adorned with flourishing bushes, subtly divides the space, adding character and definition to the outdoor area.

Location

Spalding is a historic market town in Lincolnshire, best known for its rich agricultural heritage and long standing connection to the flower industry. Once regarded as the heart of the UK's bulb-growing trade, the town was famous for its annual Spalding Flower Parade, a spectacular event celebrating the region's tulip-growing history. After a hiatus, the parade made a highly anticipated return, bringing vibrant floral displays, community spirit, and visitors from across the country to enjoy this cherished tradition.

Beyond its historical significance, Spalding offers excellent schooling with its many Primary Schools including Ayscoughfee Hall Independent Preparatory School, additionally Grammar Schooling is provided by the high performing Girls Spalding High School and the Boys Spalding Grammar School, all of which are a few minutes walk from Langtoft House.

Spalding offers a blend of history and cultural heritage with modern facilities. Traditional attractions such Ayscoughfee Hall with its lovely gardens and newly re-furbished tennis courts sits comfortably with the more modern additions such as the South Holland Centre that showcases live shows and cinema facilities, the Water Taxis to Springfields Shopping Centre. In addition, Spalding offers access to fast rail services to London, with the train station and all the amenities being a few minutes walk from Langtoft House.

These facilities are to be further enhanced by the addition of a state of the art sports and leisure complex which will be developed over the next two years offering top tier facilities for fitness, social activities, and community events.

This exciting addition will enhance the town's amenities, making it even more appealing for families and professionals seeking a well-balanced lifestyle. Spalding offers a unique and thriving environment—perfect for those looking to enjoy the charm of a market town with the benefits of contemporary living.
