INTRODUCTION

A rare opportunity to obtain a Grade II Listed period home with a wealth of period features. The main dwelling has three bedrooms and provides scope for modernisation along with a single storey attached one bedroom annexe.

LOCATION

North Farm is located within the county of Hertfordshire on the edge of the village of Reed. The property is approximately 3.5 miles south of Royston and approximately 15 miles southwest of Cambridge. Village amenities include a school, a village hall, and a cricket club. The nearby market town of Royston provides further local amenities, commutable train links directly to London as well as direct links onto major roads with good access to Cambridge city centre.

North Farm lies within the Conservation Area for the village of Reed.

The postcode for North Farm is SG8 8AE.

NORTH FARM

North Farm comprises a three-bedroom timber framed dwelling dating from the 17th Century with various extensions added over the years under a thatched roof. There is a single storey extension of brick and timber cladding underneath a natural slate roof. The house has a driveway to the side leading to large courtyard parking area (approx. 17.5m x 18.5m) giving access to the house, the annex and the outbuildings. The property benefits from a mainly lawned garden to the north and west.

North Farm is Grade II Listed, listing entry 1175734. There are several original features throughout including exposed timber beams and fireplaces.
