An aerial photograph of a large, detached Georgian residence named 'The Meads'. The house is a two-story brick building with a dark roof, multiple chimneys, and a central entrance with a small porch. It is surrounded by lush green lawns and mature trees. In the background, there are rolling green fields, a few farm buildings, and a road with several cars. The overall scene is a peaceful, rural setting.

£1,500,000

The Meads is an impressive detached Georgian residence with approximately 4 acres of land nestled in the heart of the ever-desirable Staffordshire village of Longdon Green.

The Meads is an impressive Georgian detached family residence offering over 3,600 square feet of characterful and generously proportioned accommodation situated on Church Hill within the ever-popular village of Longdon Green. Longdon Green is one of the most sought-after villages in Staffordshire, having an archetypical English green and welcoming country dining pub. The cathedral city of Lichfield is only 5-10 minutes drive away, having an excellent range of independent shops, popular eateries including a Michelin star restaurant, cafes, Garrick Theatre and two train stations which offer direct services to London Euston, Birmingham and much more. There are nearby road links including the M6 toll Road, A51, A5 and A38. For families, the property lies within the catchment area of St. James Church of England Primary Academy in the neighbouring village of Longdon, and for secondary, it is The Friary School in Lichfield.

Internally, the home has a grand entrance with central pillars and steps leading up to the beautiful double doors which open into the impressive hallway with Georgian style tiled flooring, ceiling rose with lighting, and stairs rising to the first floor landing. From the hallway, there are doors off to the inner hallway, sitting room and drawing room.

The first of four reception rooms is the sitting room; an elegant yet versatile reception room with a beautiful bay window having fitted shutters overlooking the front of the property, a gorgeous fireplace housing the open fire, ceiling rose with chandelier, and traditional wooden flooring.

The second reception room is the stylish drawing room; a generously sized family area with an excellent bar, ideal for entertaining family and friends. It features a beautiful ceiling rose with chandelier, bay window to the front aspect with fitted shutters, a gorgeous fireplace housing the open fire, traditional sash window to the rear aspect, and doors to the annex accommodation and inner hallway.

From the inner hallway, there are steps leading down to the cellar, a door to the guest cloakroom and door to the kitchen.

The beautifully appointed breakfast kitchen has a tiled floor, range-style cooker, a bespoke range of wall and base units, and a separate wooden island with granite work surface. There are spotlights to the ceiling, two windows, two Velux skylights, a door to the side aspect and bi-folding doors to the rear garden. The kitchen is an L-shaped room which wraps round into the additional kitchen area and pantry.

Upstairs, in the main house, the beautiful galleried landing gives access to the four bedrooms and modern family shower room. There are three generous double bedrooms, all boasting a wealth of character and charm, and a fair sized single room currently used as a dressing room. The impressive master bedroom benefits from its own en-suite bathroom and fitted wardrobes.

The modern family shower room comprises of a corner shower cubicle with rainfall shower, low level WC, tiled walls and flooring, chrome style heated towel rail, and spotlights to the ceiling.

The home also has the huge benefit of an annex, which offers exciting potential for multi-generational living, and can be integrated within the main house or self-contained, having access from both its own front door and from the main house via the drawing room. The annex has two reception rooms including a living room and separate dining room, a laundry room, and stairs to three bedrooms and a modern shower room.

Outside, The Meads is approached via a delightful sweeping driveway set behind double gates, creating an impressive arrival to the property. You are welcomed by beautifully manicured gardens, including an attractive walled garden and a charming dovecote, which offers potential to create a bar or home office above, complete with its own staircase for private access.

The outdoor space is ideal for entertaining, featuring a covered bar area with extensive seating, perfect for hosting gatherings with family and friends. Directly behind the kitchen is a covered area with a wood-fired pizza oven and a dedicated food preparation space, creating the perfect setting for outdoor dining and social occasions.
