THE PROPERTY

Constructed for our client in 2020, 'St Mawes' is a detached single-storey dwelling, extremely well appointed throughout, occupying a slightly elevated position on this residential site, with all main rooms together with extensive terracing and a large patio, enjoying an outlook over Pendra Loweth to surrounding countryside beyond.

Double glazed and with economic air source heating, the property has been designed and built to provide ease of access from a large, private driveway, sufficient for several vehicles. A broad front terrace, ideal for sitting-out and entertaining, leads to the entrance door with hallway leading to the two bedroom accommodation, which also includes a well appointed shower room/WC and spacious, light, triple aspect living room with well appointed kitchen area, vaulted ceiling, tall glazed screens and doorway onto the terrace and patio, adjacent to which is unspoilt woodland.

The property is for sale freehold; full rights of access are enjoyed over the approach road off Bickland Water Road and Pennance Hill, with Pendra Loweth Management Company Ltd responsible for the provision of metered mains water and electricity.

Immediate vacant possession is provided with no onward chain, thus ensuring an early completion date can be provided, subject to contract.

THE LOCATION

Maen Valley is situated close to the south western outskirts of Falmouth, in a lightly wooded and extremely sheltered valley, close to the village of Budock Water, Falmouth golf course and the sandy, safe, bathing beaches at Swanpool and Maenporth, which are connected by the beautiful South West Coast Path.
