Two-Bedroom Terraced Home in Scenic Seaside Village:

A well-presented two-bedroom terraced property situated in a charming small seaside village, offering comfortable accommodation with the benefit of good transport links to surrounding towns and amenities.

The ground floor features a bright living room with a character fireplace, alongside a generously sized fitted kitchen with ample worktop and cupboard space, integrated oven and hob, and room for everyday dining. A useful additional utility/preparation area provides further storage and workspace.

Upstairs are two bedrooms and a bathroom fitted with a bath and shower screen, WC and wash basin. Neutral décor and carpeting throughout the main living and sleeping areas create a light, versatile interior ready for tenants to make their own.

Ideally positioned for anyone looking to enjoy a quieter coastal lifestyle while remaining well connected for commuting and everyday essentials.
