SITUATION & AMENITIES

Georgeham is strategically placed between the very popular and golden sandy beaches of Croyde, Putsborough and Woolacombe a little further around the coast, all of which are well renowned in the surfing world. The village lies in a scenic valley within the heritage coast and offers two excellent public houses, church, primary school and Post Office/ Stores. There is a regular bus service to Braunton, about three miles and considered to be one of the largest villages in England and therefore caters well for its inhabitants with facilities including schools, banks, shops, health centre, library, bowling and cricket clubs. At Saunton, the sands adjoin a championship golf course all about four miles from the property. Barnstaple, the regional centre of North Devon is approximately five miles further to the south east of Braunton (therefore eight miles from the property) and here there is access to the North Devon Link Road which provides a convenient route to the M5 motorway at Junction 27, about an hour by car and where Tiverton Parkway also provides a link to London Paddington in about two hours. As the regional centre, Barnstaple accommodates the areas main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues as well as the regional hospital and theatre. The delights of Exmoor National Park are also just over half an hour by car.
