Individually designed and built in the 1930s, this impressive property combines traditional character with modern refinements, having been extended and refurbished over recent years.

The ground floor offers up to five living rooms, each with versatility of purpose and the large, modern kitchen is fitted with oak Shaker style cabinets with granite surfaces and integrated appliances. There is a potential ground-floor bedroom with adjacent shower room.

Upstairs there are five generous bedrooms with two bathrooms, one being ensuite to the principal bedroom and most bedrooms have fitted wardrobes.

The broad frontage has an in and out driveway providing ample off-road parking for several cars in addition to a large double garage. The level rear garden extends to some 125' with expansive lawn and borders of mature shrubs.

Well maintained and improved, this attractive home is now available with no onward chain.

At the top of Chipstead Village and close to the golf club, this tree-lined avenue offers a sought-after location with excellent connectivity.

The M23/M25 intersection is within a few minutes' drive, bringing Gatwick in 20 minutes, Heathrow in 40 minutes and the coastal ports and the Eurotunnel also within easy reach. You could choose either Chipstead station or Coulsdon South for direct services to London Bridge and Victoria, the latter offering faster services.

Chipstead has local shopping at the station parade whilst more extensive facilities are available at nearby Banstead, Coulsdon and Reigate. The area also has a choice of excellent schooling.

Chipstead has unspoilt rural village charm with its pretty Norman church, village pond, local pubs and annual flower show and fete. Remarkably, the village caters for almost every sport including clubs for golf, rugby, cricket and football, it also forms part of the course for the annual London to Brighton cycle race. There's abundant open countryside for walking, cycling and riding with numerous liveries in the area.
