Further benefits include a skylight providing natural light, a heated towel rail, electric downflow heater and wash hand basin. Attractive floor tiling completes the room.

OUTSIDE

A particular feature of the property is its generous gardens and grounds, set within a delightful rural setting amidst miles of rolling Cornish countryside.

The property is approached via a gated entrance leading to a spacious parking area with provision for at least four vehicles. To the front of the cottage is an attractive enclosed garden, bounded by mature hedging and laid principally to lawn, providing an appealing approach to the entrance porch and the property's charming stone façade.

Adjoining the parking area is a delightful courtyard garden with a paved seating terrace, surrounded by an attractive variety of established shrubs, plants and trees. A gate leads through to the main garden, a substantial and relatively private space enclosed by traditional Cornish hedging and mature trees.

The gardens are predominantly laid to lawn, interspersed with pathways that meander through well-stocked beds containing a variety of mature shrubs, trees and seasonal planting. A useful garden shed with windows to two elevations provides practical storage, while a further covered storage area is situated towards the lower end of the garden. Also an outside water tap.
