Description. Ideally positioned in an area of outstanding natural beauty and within a conservation area sits this attractive character semi-detached cottage dating from the 18th Century. The property sits at the end of a private road and has fantastic un-interrupted views over the open countryside.

The accommodation comprises entrance porch, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room with original fireplace and working wood burner, utility room, shower room and study area. The first floor has two double bedrooms with views over the surrounding countryside and bathroom. Benefits include a large 150ft south facing garden, patio area for entertaining, single garage with allocated parking area, recently re-fitted septic tank and LPG gas central heating. Viewings highly recommended.

Location.

Compton is a rural village north of Newbury and surrounded by beautiful rolling countryside and close to The Ridgeway offering fantastic walks and other country pursuits. The village offers a pub, post office, general stores, hair salon, barbers and both superb primary and the very well regarded Downs secondary schools. Mainline train stations serving London Paddington can be found at both Didcot and Newbury and the village is approx. seven miles from Jct 13 of the M4 with the A34 only a couple of miles away.
