OAKHAM

Oakham is a delightful market town, the capital and epicentre of Rutland. It has a good shopping centre extending along the High Street with a good range of both privately owned and nationally owned outlets catering for most needs. Being the administrative capital for the county a number of people from outlying areas also visit the town, particularly on market days, Wednesday and Saturday. Also, there are Tesco, Aldi and Co-op within the town.

For commercial and industrial businesses there are good sites locally and for communications there is a British Rail station in the town which connects to Leicester, Birmingham in the Midlands and Peterborough and London in the East.

STAFF / RELATIVE DISCLAIMER

According to the Estate Agency Act 1979 we are obliged to inform all interested parties that the owner of this property is directly associated with Murray's.

DISCLAIMER

1. The particulars are intended to give a fair and substantially correct overall description for the guidance of intending purchasers and do not constitute, nor constitute part of, an offer or contract. No responsibility is assumed for the accuracy of individual items. Prospective purchasers and lessees ought to seek their own professional advice.

2. All descriptions, dimensions, area, reference to condition and necessary permission for use and occupation and their details are given in good faith and are believed to be correct, but any intending purchasers should not rely on them as statements or representations of fact, but must satisfy themselves by inspection, or otherwise as to the correctness of each of them.

3. No person in the employment of Messrs Murray has any authority to make or give any representations or warranty whatever in relation to this property or these particulars or enter into any contract relating to this property on behalf of the vendor.

4. No responsibility can be accepted for any expenses incurred by intending purchasers or lessees in inspecting properties which have been sold, let or withdrawn.

5. It should not be assumed that the property has all necessary planning, building regulation or other consents. Where any reference is made to planning permission or potential uses, such information is given in good faith.

6. The information in these particulars is given without responsibility on the part of the agents or their clients. These particulars do not form any part of an offer of a contract and neither the agents nor their employees has any authority to make or give any representations or warranty in relation to this property.

Money Laundering Regulations 2003

Anti-Money Laundering Regulations came into force in March 2004. These regulations affect estate agents, there will be requirement that Murray's confirm the identity of its seller and buyers.
