WALSALL ROAD, FOUR OAKS, B74 4NR - OFFERS OVER £650,000

This delightful, imposing and much improved Freehold detached bungalow presents an attractive and well maintained frontage, set in a prime, central and highly sought after location. Positioned only a short distance from an excellent range of local facilities — including easy access to Sutton Park, together with shops and further amenities at The Crown — the property is perfectly placed for day-to-day convenience. A regular local bus service is readily available, as is the Cross City rail line within the Four Oaks area, offering ideal commuter links. The property is complemented by gas central heating and PVC double glazing (both were specified). To fully appreciate the home's host of appealing features, thoughtful improvements and its generous, well-proportioned accommodation, we highly recommend internal inspection.

Briefly comprising a welcoming reception hall having guest cloakroom/WC off, spacious rear lounge with feature Inglenook fireplace and bay window overlooking the attractive, well-stocked rear garden. Additionally, there is a charming, bright garden room being open-plan to the dining area, creating a superb and versatile everyday living space. The accommodation further enjoys a comprehensively fitted kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and an adjoining utility room. An inner hallway gives access to two generous double bedrooms, both benefitting from fitted wardrobes. There is also a substantial, well-appointed bathroom featuring a free standing roll top, 'swirlpool', claw footed bath. To the rear is a delightful, private garden providing an approximate southerly aspect, completing the excellent accommodation on offer. Once again, to fully appreciate the space, setting and overall presentation, we strongly recommend internal viewing.
