Description

This well presented, semi detached home is situated on the edge of the Polden Hill in the popular village of Woolavington. With facilities including church, primary school, village hall and two village shops, the village is also well located for M5 motorway access at Junction 23 at Dunball.

The property is situated in a slightly elevated position and therefore enjoys far reaching views across the Somerset Levels to Brent Knoll and The Mendips in the distance. The accommodation is presented over two floors and briefly comprises; entrance hall, lounge, separate dining room, modern, fitted kitchen, utility extension with workshop and cloakroom off. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and re-fitted shower room. The accommodation is enhanced by oil fired central heating and double glazing. Parking is in the form of a driveway leading to a car port.

A particular feature of the property are the beautifully landscaped rear gardens which have been thoughtfully designed and are maturely planted with areas of patio, lawn, raised beds and borders, fishponds and a screened area containing two metal sheds.

An early inspection to view is thoroughly recommended.

Directions

From the M5 junction 22 roundabout take a left turn signposted Highbridge. Take the next left into Burnham Moor Road and proceed to the T junction taking a right and follow the signs to Bason Bridge and East Huntspill. Proceed through the village of East Huntspill and follow the signs for Woolavington. Proceed into the village and up the hill taking a right into Old Mill Road. Continue along Old Mill Road turning first right into Highcroft where number 17 can be found on the left hand side.
