Signed, sealed and delivered. This large, extended character cottage on the outskirts of Sutton Coldfield boasts space and traditional features in abundance, whilst sitting in a very generous plot. The Old Post Office is a must view if you are after a period home that you can put your own 'stamp' on! The accommodation, measuring over 1500 square feet comprises a large entrance porch, entrance hall, kitchen and no fewer than three large reception rooms, including a living room with inglenook fire place, sitting room with multi fuel burning stove, and a dining room which could be knocked through to the kitchen (subject to gaining the necessary permissions). Upstairs, each of the three bedrooms are generous doubles, with the bright master having a modern en-suite and dressing room. There is also a family bathroom with separate WC. Outside, there is also a laundry with gardeners WC, whilst the beautiful plot boasts an in and out, gated driveway to the front and large rear garden which wraps down one side, laid mainly to lawn with patio and mature shrub borders. This really has to be viewed, so don't miss out and book in a visit today!
