THE PROPERTY

The property offers approximately 3,716 sq ft (345.2 sq m) of accommodation, formerly a public house and benefitting from a change of us to a domestic dwelling in July 2011.

The ground floor has ample scope for substantial renovation.

The generous internal proportions and number of reception rooms provide excellent flexibility, offering potential to reconfigure the layout to suit a variety of requirements, subject to any necessary consents and currently consists of a living area, reception room, conservatory, a snug, cellar, three cloakrooms and kitchen.

The exposed oak beam and stone internal walls throughout the property provide superb character, giving the opportunity to further modernise the property using the original properties character features.

The conservatory and snug provide further ground floor area for additional renovation.

The first floor has four spacious bedrooms which also benefit from the exposed oak beam character features with opportunity for further configuration.

There is a fitted bathroom of the first floor with ample space for additional utilities and reconfiguration.

A thoughtfully arranged external layout enables first-floor access to a raised section of the rear garden, creating an attractive and private area for outdoor living.

OUTSIDE

Upon approaching the property you are met with a tarmac drive which provides access to the residential dwelling and 1.44 acre amenity paddock to the South-West of the drive.

The dwelling benefits from a private drive for three vehicles, mature shrub borders and a small area of front lawn.

To the rear of the property is a multi level landscaped garden, bordered by mature hedgerows and walled boundary features. The space benefits from further landscaping and attention.

The property benefits from a further 1.44 acre paddock running alongside Cradley Brook, which provides a natural water source and an ideal space for equestrian, amenity or alternative uses subject to the necessary consents.

SERVICES

We understand that the property benefits from mains water, electricity and drainage.
