C&D Rural are proud to market Trough Farm, a traditional smallholding comprising of a two bedroom cottage with adjoining one bedroom annexe which has recently been converted to a very high standard. Set within approximately 1.86 acres of grounds, the smallholding benefits from an excellent range of versatile outbuildings and grazing field. The property is situated within easy driving distance of Longtown in Cumbria, and is perfect for hobby farmers or anyone searching for a smallholding lifestyle.

The Accommodation

A recently new utility/boot room now provides access to the cottage before stepping into the kitchen. Fitted with a range of white units, herringbone style tiled flooring, plumbing for white goods and a bespoke, dog grooming shower, it's perfect for buyers with pets. The kitchen is fitted with solid wooden base units complete with a built-in electric oven and hob, stainless steel sink with mixer tap and double aspect windows to the front and side. The living room is the heart of the home, boasting exposed stone walls which continue down the hall towards the bedrooms, exposed timber beams and a large stone built inglenook fireplace with multi-fuel stove.

The original cottage features two spacious double bedrooms, both laid with wooden flooring and the principle bedroom boasting a Clearview multi-fuel stove set on a sandstone hearth.

On the opposite side of the cottage there is a third smaller bedroom/office and modern family bathroom comprising of a three piece white suite to include a bath with mains fed shower over, WC, wash hand basin with vanity unit and cast iron towel rail. The bathroom is fully tiled and benefits from electric underfloor heating.

For easy access to the annexe, the owners have erected a timber frame rear porch with polycarbonate roof which currently serves as useful storage space. The annexe has been fully converted to offer an opportunity for multi-generational living or the potential to utilise as a holiday let. With an open plan aspect and vaulted ceiling, this bright and airy space is in turnkey condition. Briefly comprising a modern kitchen with fitted base units and a built-in electric oven, a walk-in wet room and a separate double bedroom, the annexe would suit occupants who require wheel chair access. There is a an electric feature fire in the living area and underfloor heating throughout.

Outside

Trough Farm is accessed via a public farm track. The hard standing front yard provides ample parking for owners and guests. There are a versatile range of outbuildings and sheds including traditional stone buildings, boiler house, former stables and a garage. The buildings are mostly used for storage but would also serve for equestrian purposes or smaller livestock. One of the barns has lapsed planning permission for converting into a residential dwelling: Ref 04/0877. There is a large steel frame workshop suitable for agricultural vehicles with power sockets and lights.

At the rear of the property there is a large grazing field which is relatively flat and well-fenced. The field also benefits from a hard standing area with newly built field shelter of stone and wood construction. There is a small wooded area and the cottage and annexe both enjoy a private garden area mostly laid to lawn with an array of plants and mature shrubbery. There is a final section of lawn at the front entrance where the LPG tank is located underground.
