DESCRIPTION

A characterful detached cottage of stone and cob construction, offering versatile four bedroom accommodation. The cottage is ideally suited to multigenerational living or providing potential for ancillary income, set within attractive gardens with private parking and garaging.

THE PROPERTY

A stable door opens into the welcoming kitchen, fitted with a range of solid oak wall and base units together with a 1½ bowl sink, built-in electric oven and hob, and space for a range of white goods including a fridge/freezer, washing machine, tumble dryer and microwave. The kitchen flows through to the dining room, from where steps rise to the delightful sitting room enjoying views over the front garden through two windows. A notable feature of the room is the impressive inglenook fireplace with cloam oven and inset wood burning stove set upon a slate hearth, creating a warm and inviting focal point.

Stairs ascend to the first-floor landing providing access to three bedrooms and the bathroom. All three bedrooms overlook the front aspect, whilst bedrooms two and four benefit from built-in storage cupboards. The bathroom is fitted with a WC, wash hand basin and bath with handheld shower attachment.

Leading from the sitting room is a further reception room incorporating fitted utility units and a separate external door to the garden. Stairs rise from here to the principal bedroom which benefits from an en-suite shower room. This area offers excellent flexibility and could readily serve as ancillary accommodation or a self-contained living space.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached over a private driveway providing parking for approximately two vehicles, together with a right of way for the neighbouring farmer to access adjoining land. A detached stone garage benefits from light and power, with adjoining log and bin store positioned to the rear.

The gardens lie principally to the front of the cottage and are predominantly laid to lawn, interspersed with mature shrubs and trees. A paved pathway and patio seating area provide an attractive setting for outdoor dining and entertaining.
