In a truly amazing location is this two-bedroom, first floor apartment, located less than two minutes' from Station Road West with its high-speed train access to Central London and six minutes' walk from Canterbury City Centre.

With its own ground floor entrance, you have access straight up a flight of stairs to the main apartment. To your left is a large double bedroom with bed, wardrobe, desk and plenty of light from large windows. The living room is very tastefully furnished. There is also a fully fitted, galley style kitchen with built in oven and hob, fridge freezer, washing machine and has as much cupboard space as you would find in a large family kitchen. The family bathroom is mostly tiled has a shower over the bath and finally in the second double size bedroom with a double bed, desk and built in wardrobe. Unusually for a such a city centre location this apartment has an allocated, secure parking space for one car. Additional parking may be available within Canterbury City Council car parks or on-street subject to a valid parking permit.
