This space is ideal for having relaxing evenings in or a hub for entertaining family and friends.

The first floor of the property has two exceptionally sized bedrooms with plenty of storage space. The principal bedroom is a good-sized double bedroom with a large Southerly-facing window bringing in plenty of sunshine. Bedroom two is another double room which is ideal for children to grow into. Both bedrooms benefit from original wood flooring throughout. The family shower and bathroom is beautifully designed with a claw-foot bath, shower over and wash basin. There is storage space for towels and bathroom cosmetics, and the W.C is also separated for convenience.

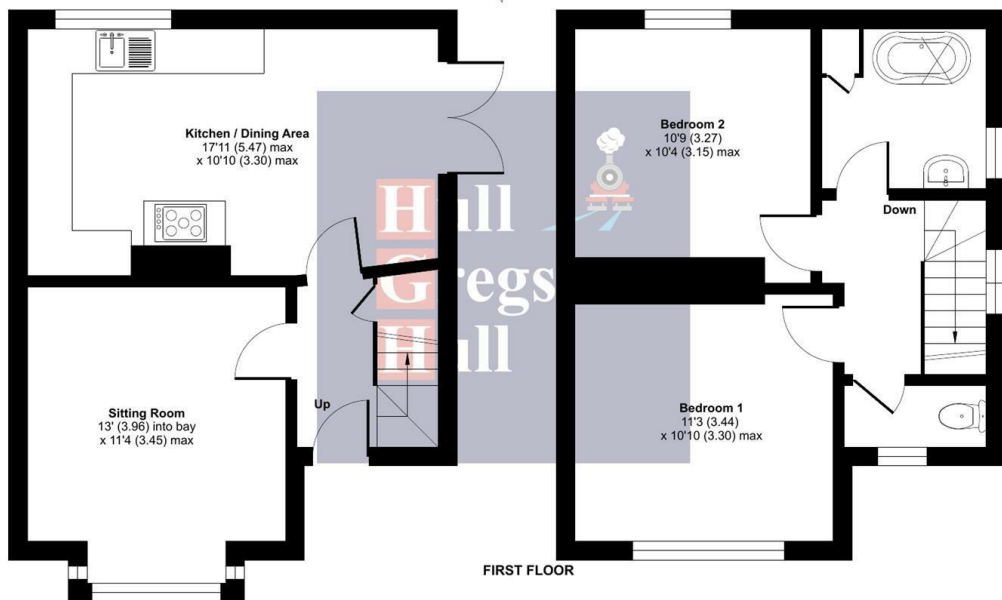

The Easterly-facing garden space is your very own tropical oasis with plenty of lush, green planting and a tall palm tree to ensure a sense of seclusion and privacy from the hustle and bustle of town. There is space for a shed, ideal for storing bikes, and gardening tools. The patio allows plenty of room for a bistro table and chairs and firepit, perfect for alfresco dining on a Summer's evening after a long day at the beach.

This detached two bedroom home has the convenience of being close to town but the luxury of a secluded garden area.
