Scrooby Manor – A TITLED ENGLISH ESTATE OF HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

Own more than just a property—inherit a legacy.

Welcome to Scrooby Manor, a Grade II listed HISTORIC ESTATE with roots stretching back to the 15th century and earlier. Once part of the medieval palace complex of the Archbishops of York, the site later became royal property under Henry VIII and Cardinal Wolsey, before playing host to some of the most important figures in early American history William Brewster, William Bradford, Richard Clyfton, and Richard Jackson, all key members of the PILGRIM FATHERS.

Recent scientific analysis of the timber used in the manor revealed that the wood was felled between 1482 and 1515, meaning parts of the building are well over 500 YEARS OLD. The oak used was from trees that had already lived for around 170 years, most likely grown and harvested locally, a powerful reminder of the estate's deep connection to its land and region.

Included with the title deeds is a rare legal right to use the historic honorifics "LORD AND LADY OF THE MANOR OF SCROOBY", offering owners not just a property, BUT A PLACE IN HISTORY. Set within approximately 12 ACRES, including 5 ACRES designated as a Scheduled Ancient Monument, the manor offers both unparalleled heritage and potential for sensitive development, thanks to existing building footprints and multiple outbuildings.
