SITUATION

Riverside occupies a delightful position within the highly regarded moorland village of St Breward, renowned for its strong community spirit and range of local amenities. These include the well-regarded Old Inn, a village school, community shop and parish church. The nearby Camel Trail, situated on the outskirts of the village, follows the scenic River Camel through Wadebridge and onwards to the picturesque harbour town of Padstow, offering superb opportunities for walking and cycling. The surrounding countryside provides an abundance of scenic walks, ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors.

The historic town of Bodmin lies approximately 8 miles to the south and provides a comprehensive range of amenities, together with a mainline railway station at Bodmin Parkway offering direct services to London Paddington. The popular estuary town of Wadebridge is just over 10 miles distant and offers a wider selection of shops, schooling, restaurants and leisure facilities. Newquay Airport, with its growing number of domestic and international flights, is readily accessible via the A39.

THE PROPERTY

Riverside is a charming and characterful Grade II listed cottage offering well-presented accommodation arranged over two floors. On entering the property, you are welcomed into a particularly inviting sitting room, featuring a dual aspect with charming cottage windows. Notable features include exposed ceiling beams, a traditional clome oven, and an attractive fireplace housing a wood-burning stove set upon a slate hearth with exposed stone surrounds. A window seat to the front elevation provides a pleasant outlook, whilst stairs rise to the first floor with a useful storage space beneath.

The kitchen is well-appointed with a range of base and wall-mounted units, incorporating space for appliances and a sink with mixer tap. Enjoying a dual aspect, the kitchen provides access to the ground floor bathroom and garden. The bathroom is fitted with a bath, low level WC, wash hand basin and a wall-mounted heated towel rail.

To the first floor, the double bedroom benefits from exposed beams, fitted storage cupboards and a window seat, whilst the gentle sound of the nearby stream enhances the tranquil setting. An en suite shower room comprises an electric shower, vanity wash hand basin and low level WC.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a quaint stone bridge leading to an attractive front patio garden, bordered by flower beds containing a variety of shrubs and plants. A pathway continues to the side of the property where there is a private, raised shingle seating area, providing an ideal space for outdoor dining and relaxation.
