Area

Horton Heath is a hamlet of just a few houses located close to the village of Horton and between the towns of Wimborne and Verwood. One of the main attractions of Horton Heath is its beautiful countryside. Surrounded by rolling hills, fields and woodland, it makes the perfect place for walking, cycling and exploring. There are many footpaths and bridleways in the area, which offer stunning views of the surrounding countryside. Horton Heath is also home to several nature reserves, which are home to a variety of wildlife, including birds, butterflies and wildflowers.

Despite its rural location, Horton Heath is well-connected to the rest of Dorset and the wider region. Located just a few miles from the A31, which provides easy access to Bournemouth, Poole and Southampton. The nearby towns of Wimborne and Ferndown offer a range of amenities, including shops, restaurants and leisure facilities. Overall, Horton Heath offers a peaceful and relaxed way of life.
