Location

The Glen Hotel enjoys a prime position in the village of Newtonmore, nestled within the stunning Cairngorms National Park — one of Scotland's most sought-after destinations for outdoor adventure, wildlife, and Highland heritage.

Easily accessible from the A9 and served by regular rail connections to Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Inverness, Newtonmore is a favourite stop for visitors travelling the North Coast 500 or exploring the Scottish Highlands. The hotel is just a short walk from local shops, cafes, and scenic trails, including the popular Wildcat Trail that circles the village with spectacular views.

Nearby attractions include the Highland Folk Museum, Highland Wildlife Park, Ruthven Barracks, and world-class hiking, cycling, and winter sports across the Cairngorms.

Property Overview

The Glen Hotel is a family run business, owned and operated by the current proprietors for over 23 years. The detached stone villa sits adjacent to a private car park off main street with access taken to a front reception area. The ground floor includes a breakfast/dining room (36 covers) which has direct access to the fully fitted commercial kitchen. The main central lounge/restaurant can cater for around 50+ covers with a traditional L shaped bar counter. A secondary lounge area to the front of the hotel can hold another 16 covers. Toilets, office, laundry and general storage areas are also provided at ground floor level.

Bedrooms

The Hotel includes 8 well appointed letting bedrooms, all situated at first floor level and each benefitting from ensuite facilities.

The rooms are well maintained and very little capital expenditure is required for an incoming operator.

Room rates vary throughout the year and are generally offered around £125 per night on a B&B basis.

Owner's Cottage

To the rear of the hotel is a detached brick built cottage which includes a lounge, kitchen, bathroom and two bedrooms.
