Plymouth

Guide Price
Offers Over £160,000

A spacious three-storey Victorian terraced house, centrally located within easy reach of Plymouth city centre, Plymouth Railway Station, Plymouth University and Victoria Park.

The property offers accommodation arranged over three floors, including an entrance hall, open-plan kitchen/breakfast room, living room, landings, three double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Having previously been the owner's home, the property has been let for a number of years and would suit a range of buyers, including first-time buyers, investors or those seeking a centrally located home with flexible accommodation. It's close proximity to the university will likely be of interest to "hmo" investors, whilst the house offers potential for continued rental use, subject to any necessary permissions and buyer checks.

The house benefits from gas central heating and PVCu double glazing. Some updating and redecoration would now be beneficial, giving a buyer the opportunity to improve and personalise the property.

Externally, the property benefits from use of a small walled courtyard/side access area, with rights set out in a deed of easement. The property has rights including pedestrian access, domestic amenity use, refuse storage and service rights, subject to the terms of the deed and shared maintenance obligations. The buyer's solicitor should verify the title and easement documentation.

Resident permit parking is available in the surrounding streets.

PLYMOUTH

Plymouth is a vibrant and historic coastal city, renowned for its stunning waterfront and one of the largest natural harbours in the world. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, the city enjoys close proximity to Dartmoor National Park, offering over 300 square miles of breath taking landscapes and exceptional opportunities for walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits.

With a population of over 250,000, Plymouth provides an excellent range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities, together with a thriving cultural scene. The city is well connected, benefiting from mainline rail services with direct routes to London Paddington and Penzance.

Further enhancing its appeal, Brittany Ferries operates regular seasonal crossings to France and northern Spain, making Plymouth an ideal location for both convenient living and coastal lifestyle.
