SITUATION

Lower Creedy is a charming Grade II listed Devon thatched residence, occupying an idyllic semi-rural setting within one of Mid Devon's most desirable locations. Nestled amidst gently undulating countryside, the property enjoys a wonderful sense of seclusion, tranquillity and natural beauty, perfectly capturing the essence of refined country living. Sandford is an easy one mile walk away and contains two pubs and a community run shop and post office. Despite its peaceful position, the house lies within easy reach of the thriving market town of Crediton, renowned for its excellent range of independent shops, cafés, schooling and everyday amenities, together with a mainline railway station offering regular services to Exeter.

The cathedral city of Exeter, with its broader commercial, cultural and transport links—including access to the M5 motorway and Exeter International Airport—is readily accessible, making Lower Creedy ideally suited to those seeking the balance of rural charm and modern convenience. The surrounding landscape offers superb opportunities for walking, riding and outdoor pursuits, with winding country lanes, river valleys and open farmland combining to create a truly picturesque and quintessential Devon setting.

DESCRIPTION

Lower Creedy is a delightful and beautifully positioned country home, offering well-proportioned accommodation and enjoying glorious views across the surrounding countryside. The property combines the warmth and character of a traditional Devon farm house with the comfort and practicality required for modern living, including secondary glazing throughout. Set within its own gardens and grounds, the house enjoys a wonderful sense of seclusion, while still being conveniently located for nearby towns and transport links. The property is approached from a quiet country lane through granite pillars and gates to a gravel-covered, cobbled courtyard.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged to provide an elegant balance of refined reception space and relaxed family living. A welcoming entrance hall leads through to the principal reception rooms all of which enjoy generous proportions, attractive outlooks and an abundance of natural light, creating a wonderfully warm and inviting atmosphere throughout. A home office benefits from an adjoining kitchen/utility area, providing a practical and flexible space ideally suited to modern working.

The farmhouse kitchen, complete with an electric AGA and LPG gas hob, lies at the very heart of the home, offering ample room for both everyday dining and more formal entertaining, with delightful views across the gardens and rolling countryside beyond. A separate boot room, accessed either from the front of the property or via the attached outbuildings, provides an ideal practical entrance for country living. In addition, a generous ground floor walk-in larder offers excellent storage, perfectly suited for wine, provisions or pantry use.

On the first floor the bedrooms are all well-proportioned and beautifully presented. Some feature striking vaulted ceilings that enhance the sense of space and character. The principal bedroom enjoys the luxury of a dedicated dressing room and ensuite together with particularly attractive rural views. The remaining bedrooms are served by well-appointed bath and shower rooms, making the accommodation ideally suited for both family life and hosting guests in comfort and style.

In addition to the main house, the property boasts a 1 bedroom annex which can be used to generate an additional income or as ancillary accommodation. It is currently used as a design studio by current vendor and has been used as a successful AirBnB.

GARDENS AND OUTBUILDINGS

The gardens are a lovely mix of lawn, kitchen garden, flower beds, orchard and a secure area for ducks and chickens. At Lower Creedy there are numerous outbuildings and include a greenhouse, sheds, covered seating areas, stables, garage and workshops plus plenty of storage rooms. There is a sense of privacy and tranquillity throughout, making the outdoor space a true extension of the house.
