Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-southwest of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the Southwest, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

The Hoe

The property is situated within close proximity to the waterfront of historic Plymouth Hoe, with its stunning views across one of the world's largest natural harbours, and close to the Barbican, which boasts an array of specialist shops, restaurants, cafés, the National Marine Aquarium and the world's oldest gin distillery. The whole area has a distinctly European feel because of the marinas, al fresco pavement cafés and waterfront bars and restaurants. Local transport links are nearby, giving access to Plymouth City Centre and other areas further afield. The city hosts world-class events such as the Americas Cup World Series and the British Art Show, as well as its own unique events such as the British Fireworks Championships and the Barbican Jazz and Blues Festival.

More Property Information

The large living room features a beautiful bay window, allowing natural light to flood the space, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. Additionally, residents will appreciate the access to a charming courtyard, ideal for enjoying the outdoors.

This property is perfect for first-time buyers or investors looking for a prime location. With amenities, shops, and the picturesque Hoe waterfront just a short walk away, you will find everything you need within easy reach. The apartment is move-in ready and comes with a long lease, making it an attractive option for those looking to settle in this vibrant area.

We highly recommend early viewing to fully appreciate the quality and charm of this exceptional apartment. Don't miss the opportunity to make this beautiful property your new home.
