Welcome Home!

This impressive home was built in the 1980s and has been in the same ownership ever since, which testifies to its success as the perfect long-term family home. The owner was drawn to the desirable and safe location, to the large plot and to the sheer amount of space on offer – and the appeal is clear today. This is a handsome property in large gardens that offers huge versatility and a very warm welcome. When you explore the house, you can easily see how comfortable and effortless life here would be and how well it would work as a place to raise your children right through until they fly the nest, staying here as they return with families of their own. Or perhaps you're retiring into the area and you want space for your family and friends to visit at weekends and in the holidays? This is the ideal home for you. The family have had many get togethers here – a large group, this has been a place where everyone can fit in comfortably, so Christmas dinners, birthday celebrations, summer parties and more have all taken place here, and three generations of the family have many memories at the home.

Easy Living

Everything about this home is welcoming and well proportioned. The central reception hall is filled with light from the galleried landing above and gives you a sense of space straight away. All the main ground floor rooms are found off the hall. There's a large dual aspect sitting room with a feature fireplace and gas stove, double doors leading from the hall and sliding doors to the patio to the rear of the house. The dining room is another lovely room and would also make a great snug or playroom. There's a spacious study to the front, so you can keep an eye on comings and goings when you're working. The utility room is the size of most people's kitchens! And the kitchen itself is lovely and roomy, with space for a family table and sliding doors to the east, allowing morning sun to pour in and make your morning cuppa rather more cheerful and uplifting. Upstairs, all four bedrooms are really generous doubles and all have built-in storage, so it's a home that's as practical as it is attractive. The master has a four-piece en-suite, while the other three bedrooms share a large bathroom with a shower and beautiful feature freestanding bath.

The Best Of The Broads

Outside the gardens are larger than you might expect. The owners have created beautiful mature surroundings and there's plenty to delight a keen gardener – and lots of lawn to delight children who can spend many a happy hour playing football or running around out here! In addition to the triple garage to the front, there's a large workshop in the rear garden that was originally home to the district nurse. Today it's a useful and versatile outbuilding. There's also a lovely glasshouse. Salhouse is an attractive village and in this part of it you have peace, quiet and plenty of privacy, but you're never far from anything. There's a train station a short walk from the front door, with trains heading up to North Norfolk or over to Norwich. There's also a gym, a farm shop, café and more close by, as well as lots of lovely country walks. You can head to Salhouse Broad in summer, and the village also benefits from a primary school, so it's ideal for families. Neighbouring Rackheath has shops and an excellent chippy which is always popular. Wroxham is also just a few minutes from here and has everything you need. All in all, this home offers a winning combination of privacy and accessibility.
