Nearby to the local supermarket and Bangor High Street, 18 Treflan is a bright two-bedroom property just a short walk away from the main University buildings. Both of the bedrooms have a double bed and are furnished with a desk and chair, wardrobe and chest of drawers. A modern kitchen area contains an oven and gas hob and washing machine, with an open plan living-dining room containing a sofa, coffee table, TV stand and dining table and chairs. The great location of this property means everything is within walking distance, from the shops to Bangor train station.
