The Property

The cottage is thought to date back to the 1890's and has attractive brick-faced principal walls following removal of previous rendering, beneath a pitched timber roof structure covered in concrete tiles. The uPVC double glazed windows were installed around 8 years ago, and heating is by a gas central heating system.

The boiler is around 7 years old and is serviced annually. The present owner has made further improvements recently to include new LVT flooring on the ground floor, a new door between the two ground floor rooms, new modern tiling in the bathroom and redecoration. Externally an owned driveway for parking and turning at the end of the lane is a valuable benefit, and has a ground security pole. The drive gives access to a longer than average garage with a workshop area at the rear.

The property has a secure enclosed garden at the rear which is well-orientated to enjoy the sun especially during the afternoon and evening. To the rear of the garage there is a timber garden shed. This is an individual home - full of character with a distinct personality. The Aldi supermarket and late opening Co-op are just a few moments walk away.

Accommodation

Ground Floor

The sitting room is a cosy room with a pillared fire surround painted grey and an inset, flame-effect gas fire with composite marble hearth. The floor has a modern, grey oak-style LVT covering and there is a window on the front elevation, a double radiator, TV aerial socket and LED spotlights to two ceiling fittings.

A Salus digital controller operates the central heating system and can be controlled by mobile app. Beneath this, there is a base cupboard containing the electricity consumer unit with MCBs, electricity meter and a further base double cupboard by the fireplace contains the gas meter – both are smart meters. A part-glazed door painted white with decorative panes opens into the dining kitchen.

The dining kitchen is fitted with a modern range of units, having birch-style facings and metal handles, to include base cupboards and drawers, wall cupboards, roll-edge, granite-effect work surfaces and Metro-style ceramic tile splash-backs.

There is a stainless steel, one and a half bowl sink unit with lever mixer tap, a recess with plumbing for washing machine and a further recess for under-counter refrigerator.

The wall-mounted Worcester gas-fired combination central heating boiler is located in the kitchen and there is a rear window providing views across the garden. A part-glazed, white uPVC (double-glazed) door opens to outside.

The staircase leads off the dining kitchen via quarter landings to the first floor and has a white, pillared balustrade, panelled beneath with understairs store cupboard and drawers, all painted white.

The grey, oak-effect LVT floor covering extends through into the dining kitchen from the sitting room and there is a double radiator and a roller blind to the rear window.

First Floor

The staircase leads up from the kitchen to a landing which has a trap access to the roof void, a smoke alarm and four LED spotlights to a ceiling fitting. Doors lead off to the bedrooms and bathroom.

The main bedroom is positioned at the front of the cottage and is an excellent size, with a clothes-hanging recess fitted with clothes rail and shelf over. There is a radiator and window on the front elevation.

The second bedroom is a media and hobby rom for the present owner but is otherwise a single bedroom and has double doors to a recessed wardrobe with clothes rail and a raised lower shelf. There is a radiator, laminated floor covering and rear window.

The bathroom is L-shaped and has a modern, white suite comprising a low-level, WC, pedestal wash hand basin with mixer tap and splash-back, and a panelled bath set into the recess with newly-tiled, high-gloss splash-back surround and side panel. There are shower fittings to the bath mixer tap.

Outside

At the side of the house, there is a tarmac and concrete-paved driveway providing valuable parking space and giving access to the larger-than average, detached concrete sectional garage. The garage is accessed through an up-and-over door at the front or a ledged pedestrian door from the garden. Inside, there is a workshop area at the rear with bench, shelving and storage cupboard, a single-glazed window on the elevation facing the garden and strip lighting. Power points allow further appliances to be connected here if required.

A grey, painted hand gate leads from the driveway into the rear garden, which is enclosed by timber fencing and the garage, with a useful garden shed to the rear of the garage. The main area is laid to lawn with a slate bed at the rear for pot plants and tubs and a border along the side of the lawn with rose tree, shrubs and an established buddleia. There is a paved seating area immediately to the rear of the cottage with an outside water tap and a timber sleeper retains the lawn with a slate pathway and flagstone to the garage door. Over the rear door into the kitchen, there is a sensor floodlight and there is a further light over the garage door.

At the front of the cottage there is an outside lantern by the canopy porch and a border finished in slate chippings with a miniature fence, quarry-tiled approach to the front door and space for flower pots/tubs.
