Set within a quiet cul de sac, Rowan House is a substantial four bedroom detached home occupying a generous corner plot and offered chain free, presenting a composed and straightforward opportunity for buyers seeking both space and flexibility.

The house unfolds with a confident sense of proportion, its layout carefully arranged to support modern patterns of living. A dual aspect lounge forms an elegant principal reception, drawing in natural light from both elevations and providing a comfortable yet refined setting for everyday use or more formal occasions. Complementing this, a second reception room introduces valuable versatility, lending itself equally well to a study, home office or additional sitting room. At the heart of the home, the open plan kitchen dining living space delivers a cohesive and sociable environment, where cooking, dining and relaxation are seamlessly combined.

Upstairs, four well balanced bedrooms offer comfortable accommodation, with the principal suite benefitting from an en suite, supported by a well appointed family bathroom. A ground floor WC further enhances the practicality of the layout.

Externally, the corner plot provides a heightened sense of openness and privacy, with gardens that invite both enjoyment and potential for further enhancement, subject to the necessary permissions. Complemented by a generous driveway, the oversized double garage offers superb versatility for parking, storage or workshop use, while also presenting potential for annexe accommodation or multi-generational living, subject to planning consent.

Overall, Rowan House presents a home of scale, adaptability and understated quality.

The perfect balance of practicality and refinement, with thoughtful details supporting everyday ease.

Sporle

AN IDYLIC WEST NORFOLK
VILLAGE SETTING

Sporle is a charming and well-regarded rural village positioned within the heart of West Norfolk, celebrated for its peaceful atmosphere, strong community spirit and unspoilt countryside surroundings. Set amid gently rolling farmland and expansive open skies, the village offers an idyllic setting for those seeking a quieter pace of life without sacrificing everyday convenience.

At the centre of the village lies the highly regarded Sporle Church of England Primary Academy, alongside the popular Dragonfly public house, both of which contribute to the welcoming and sociable nature of the community. The village is framed by an abundance of scenic walking and cycling routes, providing direct access to the surrounding countryside and an outdoor lifestyle that is deeply rooted in the local area.

Despite its rural position, Sporle remains exceptionally well connected. The nearby market town of Swaffham offers a comprehensive range of amenities including supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, schools and healthcare facilities, while King's Lynn provides mainline rail services to London King's Cross. The A47 further enhances accessibility, linking the village to Norwich and the wider Norfolk coastline.

Sporle presents a rare balance of village charm, connectivity and countryside living, making it a highly desirable location for families, professionals and those seeking a refined rural lifestyle in one of Norfolk's most attractive settings.
