16 Perth Street, Hull, HU5 3PE

£140,000

A beautifully presented two bedroom mid terraced home situated on Perth Street, right in the heart of the ever popular HU5 area. Perfectly suited to first time buyers or those looking to downsize, this stylish property is ideally positioned close to the excellent range of amenities found along Chanterlands Avenue and Princes Avenue. The current owners have meticulously modernised and refined the home throughout, resulting in a property that is finished to an exceptional standard and ready to move straight into.

The accommodation is both inviting and thoughtfully designed, beginning with an entrance hall leading into a lovely living room that showcases an open fireplace, bay window and tasteful décor that perfectly complements the character of the home. A separate dining room provides a fantastic sociable space and benefits from direct access to the rear patio. The modern kitchen is sleek and well appointed, with quality finishes and a useful utility room positioned to the rear, adding to the practicality of the layout.

Upstairs, there are two beautifully presented bedrooms, both finished in a calm, stylish palette. The bathroom is a real standout feature, offering a luxurious feel with a freestanding bath, walk in shower and contemporary fittings. Externally, the property enjoys a well proportioned courtyard garden with porcelain tiled patio and walkways, a large storage shed and an attractive walled front garden, all of which have been equally well maintained.

Stylish, immaculate and perfectly located, this is a superb example of a turn key HU5 home that truly must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
