STEP INSIDE

As you enter the property, you are welcomed by the hallway, which provides access to the stairs leading to the first floor and a doorway into the lounge.

The lounge is a light and airy space with a front-facing window and a feature electric fire. A broad opening leads through to the kitchen/breakfast room, creating a lovely open-flow feel.

The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with modern wall and base units and includes built-in appliances such as an oven, hob, and dishwasher. A large and useful understairs storage cupboard offers additional practicality, and there is ample room for a dining table and chairs. Windows and French doors open out to the rear garden, allowing plenty of natural light into the room. A side door also provides convenient access to the driveway.
