Occupying a choice ground-floor position within the distinguished New Wing of Wergs Hall, this exceptional ground floor apartment offers a rare opportunity to acquire a luxury home of genuine character and quality. Restyled in recent years with great care, the interior combines charm, sophistication and contemporary comfort, a turnkey residence for purchasers seeking a premium lifestyle in one of the region's most exclusive private settings.

Designed to maximise space and natural light, the apartment features tall ceilings, large windows and a beautifully balanced layout, creating an inviting and effortlessly bright living environment. Every room has been designed to an impressive standard, with fresh modern décor, quality carpets and flooring, smart white bathrooms and a well equipped kitchen, all enjoying a delightful outlook over the landscaped mature grounds. The single-level layout is particularly ideal for buyers wanting the ease and accessibility of bungalow-style accommodation, while still enjoying the reassurance and security of neighbours close by.

Extending to approximately 849sq feet, the accommodation includes an entrance hall with airing cupboard and separate storage cupboard, a master bedroom with built-in wardrobes and ensuite shower room, a further double bedroom and a well-appointed main bathroom. The magnificent 26ft open-plan living and dining room benefits from a unique dual-aspect design, with French doors framing views towards the neighbouring lake, a tranquil and highly desirable feature. A gated sweeping driveway leads to the residents' car park, offering two allocated parking spaces, additional guest parking and a private storage cage located beneath the main hall.

Set within approximately nine acres of breathtaking communal grounds, Wergs Hall is renowned for its exceptional outdoor environment, including formal lawns, mature woodland, a secret Japanese garden and picturesque views over the adjacent fishing lake. Despite its tranquil countryside setting, the development remains superbly convenient, with Tettenhall Village just over one mile away and Codsall Station only 1.6 miles. A truly impressive example of its type, internal inspection is strongly recommended to appreciate the quality, design and exclusivity of this outstanding apartment!
