There is something particularly special about a period home that has been so lovingly cared for over the years and this family home on Ley Hey Road is a wonderful example. Well presented throughout, with a wealth of beautifully preserved original features, generous rooms and a truly delightful garden, this is a home with warmth, character and an unmistakable sense of quality.

Ley Hey Road has long been regarded as one of Marple's most desirable residential addresses and it's easy to see why.

Attractive homes on generous plots and a peaceful setting, all within easy reach of excellent schools, local amenities and transport links.
