Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Nestled in the heart of the charming village of Oakamoor, you will find this beautifully presented, quintessential cottage. Brimming with rustic character and timeless charm, the property enjoys a picturesque setting on The Square, with a delightful cottage garden that completes the storybook appeal.

Inside, a cosy lounge welcomes you to the property and centres around a striking stone fireplace with a multi-fuel stove – perfect for relaxing evenings. A stripped wooden door leads through to the country-style kitchen which boasts slate work surfaces, from which stairs lead to the First Floor and a door leads through to a stylish ground floor Bathroom featuring a freestanding roll-top bath.

Upstairs, you'll find a double bedroom to the rear aspect and a versatile study or snug, from which stairs lead to a second spacious double bedroom tucked away on the top floor.

Outside, the block-paved cottage garden is a sanctuary of wildflower borders, with a wooden summer house providing the perfect spot to enjoy peaceful village life.

A true gem in a sought-after Staffordshire Moorlands setting.

Location

The Churnet Valley landscape is truly remarkable, and its potential designation as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty reflects its breathtaking scenery. Within walking distance of the village, there are two local pubs where you can enjoy a drink, as well as the charming "Ramblers Retreat" tea room. Additionally, the village is located next to Alton, which offers a range of local shops and is home to the famous Alton Towers Theme Park. The market towns of Ashbourne and Leek are less than a 25-minute drive away, while Cheadle is just a 5-minute drive away, providing easy access to major commuter routes.

Nature enthusiasts will delight in the numerous nature reserves in and around Oakamoor, which are owned by conservation organizations and the County Council. Some of the notable reserves in the area include Hawksmoor Nature Reserve (managed by the National Trust), Dimmingsdale Nature Reserve, Oakamoor to Denstone Greenway (managed by Staffordshire County Council), and Cotton Dell Nature Reserve (managed by Staffordshire Wildlife Trust). Carr Wood, situated in the northern part of the village, serves as a stunning backdrop to the conservation area, with woodland stretching northwards from Churnet View Road and The Valley School.

For those seeking tranquillity and natural beauty, Dimmingsdale is a hidden gem in North Staffordshire. Its rolling countryside is adorned with woodlands, streams, ponds, and lakes, providing a serene and peaceful environment. Dimmingsdale is a paradise for walkers, offering a plethora of routes throughout the valley, ranging from short and easy strolls to challenging full-day hikes.
