PLYMPTON

Plympton is a sought-after commuter town located just four miles east of Plymouth city. Having its origins as a market town the area is sandwiched between the outstanding natural beauty of Dartmoor and the river Plym. Renowned for excellent local schooling and the popular amenities of the busy Ridgeway shopping centre, Plympton is an area that has seen significant growth over recent years. Chaddlewood, a suburb of Plympton, is a modern development of properties served by its own shopping parade and a busy bus route. It is particularly accessible to the A38, popular with commuters working in the city which is less than a ten minute drive away. The nearby Langage Science and Business Parks provide considerable local employment, whilst the countryside and pretty local villages including Hemerdon, Lutton and Cornwood are all within two or three miles of the area.
