- Former bone works offering a rare and characterful site.
- Unique self-build opportunity.
- Full planning consent for a four-bedroom dwelling.
- Approx. 0.28 acres with allocated garden area.
- Canal-side setting with single mooring rights.
- Available by auction on the 27th February 2026.

DESCRIPTION
The property comprises a former bone works, offering a rare and highly individual self-build opportunity set within an attractive semi-rural position. The site benefits from full planning consent for the construction of a four-bedroom dwelling, with approximately nine months remaining on the current permission. Importantly, the plot is offered with no Section 106 sale price restriction, providing flexibility for future resale.

Extending to approximately 0.28 acres, the site includes an allocated garden area and enjoys a particularly appealing setting adjacent to the canal, with the benefit of single mooring rights, adding a unique lifestyle element rarely found with residential building plots.

The existing brick-built structures and chimney stack reflect the site's industrial heritage and contribute to its distinctive character, while the approved consent presents an exciting opportunity to create a bespoke family home in a waterside setting, subject to the approved plans and remaining planning period.

DIRECTIONS
From Oswestry, proceed south on the A5 towards Shrewsbury. After approximately 3 miles, turn right signposted for Maesbury Marsh and follow the lane through the village. Continue along the road, passing open countryside, and follow the lane as it leads towards the canal. The property will be found nearby, identifiable on approach.

SITUATION
Maesbury Marsh is a pleasant rural village set amidst open Shropshire countryside, located a short distance from the Welsh border and within easy reach of Oswestry. The area offers an attractive country setting with excellent access to walking routes and surrounding farmland, while nearby Oswestry provides a full range of everyday amenities, schooling and transport links.

SCHOOLING
The area is served by a range of schooling options, with primary education available locally in Maesbrook and nearby villages, including village primary schools in the surrounding rural area. Further primary provision is available in Oswestry, together with secondary education at The Marches School, which serves the wider locality. Independent schooling options are also available in Oswestry, including Oswestry School, offering education through to sixth form. The location is therefore well suited to families seeking a rural setting with access to a broad choice of education provision.

AUCTION/LEGAL PACK
A legal pack will be prepared by the Solicitor in advance of the auction. A copy can be requested from the Selling Agent (see Conditions of Sale below).
