Location

The Market Town of Thirsk is nestled in Herriot Country and is a fantastic location for those who enjoy an active, outdoor lifestyle. Locally, the Town provides a wide range of team sports including Rugby, Football, Cricket, Hockey, Netball and many more. Thirsk has three Primary Schools and one Comprehensive School and Sixth Form within the Town. Within a short distance, there are four private schools, Cundal Manor, Queen Mary's, Queen Ethelburga's and Ampleforth. The Town has Private and Council run gymnasiums and pool, a cinema and a wide range of Cafes and Restaurants. For shopping, a market is held two days a week. Local, largely independent traders have boutiques and shops in and around the market place and there is a selection of Supermarkets.

Transport

With its location so close to the A19 and A1(M), Thirsk is ideally situated for commuting and sits a short drive from, York, Harrogate, Ripon, Teesside and Leeds. Thirsk's train station is on the East Coast Mainline and offers direct access from Edinburgh to London.
