Description

Situated on the popular Garth Road in North Kingston, this delightful 1930s semi-detached house offers a perfect blend of classic character and modern living. Featuring a spacious layout of 1,049 square feet, the property comprises a double reception room providing ample space for both relaxation and entertaining, a stunning kitchen extension featuring contemporary design and high-quality finishes, three bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom.

There is further potential to extend into the loft, offering an excellent opportunity to create additional living space to suit your needs (STPP). Outside, the property benefits from off-street parking for two vehicles and a beautiful 28ft rear garden.

In summary, this semi-detached house on Garth Road is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a charming home with modern features and the potential for further development. Do not miss the chance to make this property your own.

Situation

Garth Road is a sought after road within the Tudor development in North Kingston, situated a short walk from the River Thames and within close proximity of Richmond Park. This is a wonderful environment for a family, being ideally positioned between Kingston and Richmond town centres with their extensive range of shops, restaurants and overland & underground stations providing services to Waterloo and the City. The local shops of Ham Parade are close by and Ham Common is a short distance away. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
