

Dudley Road, KT1

£470,000

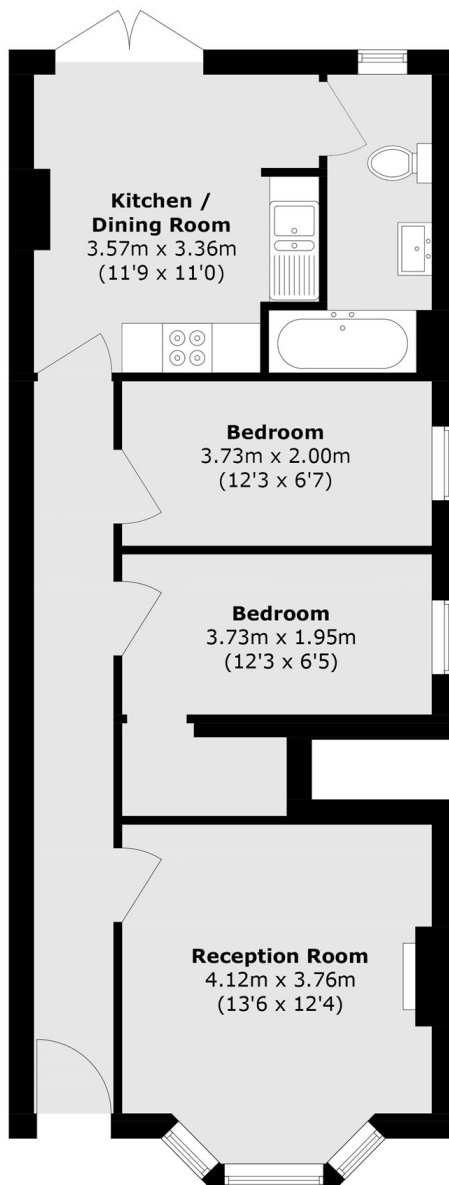

An attractive, purpose built, period, ground floor maisonette benefiting from its own private entrance and direct access to a delightful west facing private rear garden. The front reception room is a stylish yet comfortable space, beautifully enhanced by an abundance of period features including stripped wooden floors, ornate coving, an original fireplace and double glazed sash style windows set within the front bay.

Dudley Road is a peaceful residential street, perfectly positioned just moments from the open green spaces of Fairfield Recreation Park, while the cafés, shops and amenities of Kingston town centre and Kingston Mainline Station are all within half a mile, offering the ideal balance of tranquillity and convenience.
