Robinsons are delighted to present to the market this stunning two/three-bedroom bungalow, beautifully maintained by its current owner and located in a quiet cul-de-sac within a modern, highly sought-after residential development.

This exceptional home offers an array of impressive features, including a well-presented kitchen and shower room, high-quality fixtures and fittings, a generously sized and low-maintenance garden, ample off-road parking, and a larger-than-average garage. The property is immaculate throughout, both in presentation and decorative order.

Ideally positioned, the bungalow provides convenient access to Spennymoor Town Centre, local schools, bus routes, and everyday amenities. It is also perfectly situated for commuters travelling to Durham City, Darlington, and Teesside, with the A1 reachable within approximately ten to fifteen minutes by car.

The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hallway, spacious lounge, attractive kitchen, separate dining room (which could be utilised as a third bedroom), two double bedrooms, and a contemporary, ultra-modern shower room and beautiful garden room. Externally, the front elevation features a low-maintenance garden and a long driveway leading to the garage. To the rear, there is a generous garden with a patio area—ideal for outdoor enjoyment.

Early viewing is strongly recommended to avoid disappointment.
