This substantial Victorian house on Greyhound Road offers five bedrooms arranged over three floors, two reception rooms and a private rear garden. The ground floor includes a bay fronted reception room, a second reception and a fitted kitchen with space for dining and direct access to the garden. Upstairs, five bedrooms provide generous accommodation for families, with flexibility for guests or working from home. Outside, the enclosed rear garden offers space for seating and outdoor dining.

The location is a particular draw for families, with a choice of well regarded local schools in the surrounding area. College Road and Chamberlayne Road are also close by, offering an appealing mix of independent shops, cafés and restaurants, alongside the much loved Lexi Cinema. Kensal Rise station provides Overground connections across London, while Kensal Green offers Bakerloo line and further Overground services.
