Driver Terrace, Silsden Keighley

Situated in the popular village of Silsden, this stone-built three bedroom end terrace property occupies an enviable position at the head of a quiet cul-de-sac. Enjoying substantial gardens to the front, side and rear, together with long distance views.

Entering the ground floor, you are welcomed into a porch which opens into the hallway, providing access to the main living accommodation. Stairs rise to the first floor, with useful under-stairs storage and a downstairs WC.

The living room is a particularly appealing space, featuring a large bay window to the front which floods the room with natural light whilst enjoying the long distance views. A stone mantel beam frames the fire opening, creating an attractive focal point, with provision for a wall-mounted TV above.

The kitchen diner is fitted with a range of wall and base units, complemented by integrated appliances including an oven, microwave, hob, extractor fan and fridge freezer. There is also space and plumbing for a washing machine. A breakfast bar provides additional seating, alongside a built-in seating area with useful storage. There is ample room for a dining table and chairs, whilst a further stone mantel beam frames the fire opening. Double doors open directly onto the rear garden, creating a lovely connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces.

To the first floor are three bedrooms and the house bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are both generous-sized doubles, each benefiting from built-in storage, whilst bedroom three is a single room offering versatility to suit individual or family requirements. The bathroom comprises a three-piece suite including a shower over the bath.
