Immaculately presented Four Bedroom Detached Family Home with recently fitted kitchen, home office and integral garage.

The property offers spacious and practical family accommodation, complemented by an enclosed rear garden, driveway parking and a number of recent improvements.

LOCATION

Warwick Close is situated within the popular village of Saxilby, approximately six miles from Lincoln and offering an excellent combination of village life, everyday amenities and convenient access to the city. The village has a strong community feel and provides a good range of local facilities including a Co-op, primary school, railway station and sports ground with sports bar, alongside other everyday amenities and recreational facilities.

For commuters, Saxilby is conveniently positioned for access into Lincoln via the A57, while the railway station provides an alternative connection into the city and beyond. Lincoln itself offers an extensive range of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities and cultural attractions, together with its historic Cathedral Quarter. With local schooling, transport connections, recreational facilities and Lincoln all within easy reach, Saxilby remains a particularly appealing choice for families looking for a well connected village setting.
