7 Haywards Farm Close

, Verwood, BH31 6XW

Dating back to the early 1700s, this exceptional period home is believed to be one of Verwood's oldest surviving properties, offering a rare opportunity to own a piece of local history. Combining an abundance of character, spacious accommodation and versatile living space, this distinctive home offers a wealth of possibilities.

Set within a quiet and desirable location, the property provides generous accommodation arranged over two floors, currently offering five to six bedrooms. The flexible layout makes it ideally suited to larger families, multi-generational living or those seeking additional space for home working.

The welcoming lounge features a traditional fireplace with a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy focal point while complementing the property's period charm. Original character features can be found throughout, blending the home's historic appeal with practical additions for modern-day living.
