The Location

Belaugh is one of Norfolk's most picturesque and unspoilt villages, offering a peaceful rural lifestyle within easy reach of the county's wider amenities. Renowned for its charming collection of period cottages, attractive historic buildings and beautiful riverside setting, the village enjoys a timeless character that has made it one of the area's most desirable locations for those seeking a quieter pace of life.

Surrounded by stunning Norfolk countryside, Belaugh provides an idyllic environment for outdoor enthusiasts. The village is particularly popular with walkers, cyclists and nature lovers, with an abundance of footpaths, bridleways and scenic countryside routes available to explore. The River Bure itself forms an integral part of village life, creating a tranquil backdrop and offering opportunities to enjoy the area's abundant wildlife, peaceful waterside walks and ever-changing seasonal scenery.

Belaugh also enjoys a desirable position within easy reach of the Norfolk coastline, perfect for making the most of scenic seaside escapes and coastal walks.

Despite its rural tranquillity, Belaugh benefits from excellent access to nearby amenities. The neighbouring village of Wroxham, often referred to as the "Capital of the Norfolk Broads", lies just a short distance away and provides a comprehensive range of facilities including supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, doctors' surgeries and everyday services. Wroxham and nearby Hoveton also offer an excellent selection of waterside attractions, boating opportunities and leisure facilities, allowing residents to fully embrace the unique lifestyle associated with the Norfolk Broads.

The surrounding Broads National Park provides miles of navigable waterways, nature reserves and picturesque landscapes, attracting visitors from across the country while offering residents an exceptional environment right on their doorstep. Whether enjoying a boat trip along the river, exploring nearby woodland trails or simply taking in the peaceful surroundings, the area offers countless opportunities to enjoy the outdoors.

For those travelling further afield, Belaugh remains remarkably well connected. The Cathedral City of Norwich can be reached within a comfortable drive and provides an extensive range of shopping, dining, cultural and entertainment facilities. Norwich also offers excellent rail connections to London and the wider national network, along with a thriving business community, making Belaugh an attractive choice for those wishing to balance rural living with professional commitments.

The entrance hall welcomes you into the property and leads through to two separate living rooms, both offering distinct character and atmosphere. The spacious left-hand sitting room enjoys the warmth and charm of a traditional coal fire, creating a cosy retreat during the colder months, while the right-hand living room features a log burner as an attractive focal point. Positioned to the rear of the home, the impressive kitchen/dining room forms the heart of the property, providing an excellent space for everyday family life and entertaining. Enhanced by underfloor heating, this generously sized room offers ample space for cooking, dining and socialising, with direct access to the garden. A useful utility room, dedicated study, ground-floor WC and central hall complete the ground-floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing provides access to four well-proportioned bedrooms, each benefiting from a bright and airy feel. The principal bedroom is served by its own en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are supported by a family bathroom fitted with a bath and shower over. Built-in storage has been thoughtfully incorporated throughout the home, helping to maximise practicality and organisation.
