RESIDENTIAL SALES

EST. 2004

2 Beeches Close

Pitton, SP5 1EF

Guide price £525,000

A particularly spacious detached bungalow sitting within a generous corner plot in this quiet cul-de-sac. Lanterns is a three bedroom property with double glazing and oil fired heating, the property does require some improvement but holds huge potential to extend and/or remodel (subject to consent). Currently accommodation comprises entrance lobby, spacious hallway, 7m x 5.5m reception room with doors to the garden, kitchen, three double bedrooms, bathroom, separate cloakroom and integral garage. Sitting on a corner plot, Lanterns enjoys a generous front garden and driveway with an equally generous rear garden, ample space exists to extend the property on three sides (subject to planning permission). Quietly sitting in the extremely popular village of Pitton the bungalow is a short walk from the village school, public house and post office. Pitton also now benefits from recently installed fibre internet caballing. Lanterns is being sold with vacant possession and provides a fantastic opportunity to acquire a property in a prime location.

Directions

From Salisbury proceed to Pitton on Whiteway. Follow the road into the village past the school on your right turning next right into Slate Way. After a short time turn left into Beeches Close where Lanterns can be found on your right.
