Description

Entering the hallway, you have stairs rising to the first-floor level along with doors to all ground floor rooms. At the front of the property there is a cosy lounge with a large bay window to the front aspect allowing for plenty of natural lighting and a fireplace with log burning stove. There is a further room which is currently being used as a home study/office but could also be utilised as a third bedroom, depending on needs. The property has been extended to the rear to accommodate a fabulous kitchen / family room which has access, via sliding patio doors, into the garden. The kitchen has been fitted in a lovely range of floor to ceiling units providing excellent storage and there is a breakfast bar which has an inset hob with built-in extractor. There is seating to one side of the breakfast bar. Further integrated appliances include fridge/freezer and double ovens. Finishing the accommodation on the ground floor is a stylish shower room, with shower cubicle, wash hand basin and w.c.

Rising to the first floor you have two further double bedrooms along with the main family shower room. Both bedrooms have windows to the rear aspect and walk-in access into their own separate dressing rooms. If desired, there is the potential to create an additional bedroom from one of the walk-in dressing rooms (subject to the usual regulations)

A well-maintained rear garden has a raised decking area of good size, with steps which lead down to a neat lawn. Within the garden there are two spacious composite storage sheds and a composite gazebo. Within the garden there is a fully plumbed outside kitchen area with storage worktop space with hot and cold running water and electric supply. The rear garden is also fully lit with and has outside power supplies. To the front a shared driveway gives access to your own frontage where you have parking for two vehicles, and there is a side access through to the rear garden. The remainder of the front is laid to lawn and could offer additional parking space.
